WOMEN ENJOY BATHING BEACH

Cold Plunge Is Becoming More Popular Among Fair Sex.

NEW MARINE STYLE

"Fish Tail" Skirt Rivals Its Sister, "Slack," of the Street, but with Good Reason.

These are the days when the Municipal Bathing Beach comes into its own. Its popularity is on the flow and every day it is the scene for larger crowds. And let it not be supposed that the beach is merely the gathering place for gangs of "barefoot boys." No such thing. It is coming to be the rendezvous for many of the fashionable women of the Capital and on its cool concrete walks and gentle springboards even the "slit skirt" of fame has made its appearance. The beach is not to be outdone in the matter of the latest styles by any of the summer resorts in the land.

Woman Bathers Increase.
The increase in the number of women taking advantage of the bathing pools provided by the District is shown by the figures of the books of Dr. William R. Hudson, superintendent of the beach, and is a matter for great gratification to Dr. Hudson, who has in the last six years seen the feminine attendance increase from a mere handful to large crowds.

The idea of allowing women the privilege of the pools was put into effect in 1907, said Dr. Hudson yesterday, sitting in his office in the rear of the building where the shrill screams of scores of small boys came in a subdued murmur.

During the next two years water sports became more popular with women, and at the end of 1909 the books showed that 25 women had attended. The following year the number was 69; in 1911 there were 1,837; in 1912, 3,781, and so far the figures have run over 5,000. Up to date there are 4,338 on my books, but this does not include the many women not registered.

But about this up-to-date "slit skirt" bathing suit spoken of in the first of this story—

A male audience during women's hours is frowned on by the guards at the beach, and therefore, the woman who has not a wife given to water sports must remain in ignorance.

"Fish Tail" Skirt.
For the benefit of such it is said that the skirt—which among the initiated is known as the "fish tail" skirt—is merely a skirt made of strips of cloth that hang from the waist, falling around the figure when the wearer is out of the water, and having the appearance of the ordinary bathing skirt worn by women, but in the water the strips separate and allow the freedom of motion necessary to swimming.

And, unlike the slit skirt of F Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, that writhes at the bathing beach does not depend for its popularity on masculine approval.

The hours for women are between 7 a. m. and 10 on the mornings of Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and between 2 and 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoons. The morning is the most favored with the fashionable attendance. On those days the roads along the bathing beach are lined with automobiles and the pools are filled with females that range from the age of five to sixty-one. One of the regular swimmers at the beach is sixty-one years old. She learned to swim there last summer, and is counted a good swimmer.

Queen of the Beach.
The reigning queen of the beach, and one of the most expert swimmers in the feminine ranks, is Annabelle Hudson. She is as brown as a berry, stronger and more expert than many of the boys of her age that come to the pools, and swims two strokes—the breast stroke and the crawl stroke—and now is learning the crawl stroke. She first took to the water during her third year, and has been swimming ever since.

In spite of the protests from the women patrons against the rule prohibiting women from taking men escorts into the pools, it appears from the records that the women of Washington prefer to do their swimming without the aid of men.

Between June 19 and 30, before the rule excluding male escorts was put in force, 1,187 women went in the pools, and during the same period of the month just passed the number was raised to 2,250.

GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL. RECORDS ARE BROKEN
Number of Persons at Institution in Anacostia Passed 3,000 Mark Last Week.
Reports of the damage done by the recent heavy storm of July 21 to the farms in this community and nearby points in Maryland show the loss was the worst experienced in many years. At the truck farms beyond Congress Heights, five owners suffered serious loss. Alfred Grimes reports the loss of 1,000 cantaloupes. Reginald C. Truesden, who conducts a farm at Westwood, reports that his new barn, measuring 40 by 60 feet and filled with tobacco ready for shipment, was struck by the lightning and burned to the ground, his loss probably reaching $4,000.

Dr. Mary O'Malley, head of the female department at the Government Hospital for the Insane, left yesterday for Long Island and Buffalo, N. Y., on her vacation.

A meeting of the board of directors of the German Orphan Asylum will be held this afternoon in the board room of that institution in Good Hope Road, reaching them by foot or by trolley is given.

The question of planting additional trees along the streets in Anacostia where they have been removed, due to improvements, will be considered in the near future by the committee of the citizens' association in charge of this matter.

The public playgrounds surrounding the Ketchikan school building in Good Hope Road will be closed tomorrow morning, as Miss Virginia Littleton, who has been in charge of the work there, will announce the winners of the contests in industrial work as follows: Lewis Stehr, Miss Schubert, Ruth Thorne, Myrtle Stone, Florence Gibbons, Miss Carter, Marie Owens, Willie Thorne, and Vivian Murphy. The work includes wickerware, basket, scarfs, centerpieces.

Miss Emily L. Martin of the Government Hospital for the Insane has been to Atlantic City on her vacation.

Dr. John B. Anderson of Texas, who was recently appointed as a medical interne at the Government Hospital for the Insane, has resigned. He will enter the medical corps of the army.

The Rev. W. G. Davenport, rector emeritus of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, has gone to Colonial Beach, Va. The number of persons at the Government Hospital for the Insane passed the three thousand mark this past week. The records show that there are at present 3,000 persons connected with the institution, 2,238 men and 862 women. This is the highest figure in the institution's history.
